The learner we want at OLW…

The “Yellow Poster” – It takes great strength to be sensible. Being socially and emotionally competent is not just up to kids. It is up to us as adults to show/teach kids how to be socially and emotionally competent. Kids will take their lead from parents. Your kids watch you deal with socially challenging and emotionally challenging situations. What they see and hear teaches them what they are supposed to do; how to ‘do the right thing because it is the best thing to do.’

- Recently it was shown that most people are dishonest in supermarkets. One of the news shows showed that money left (cash out) in the self-service isles was quickly taken by the next customer.

When the opportunity arises show your kids the strength it takes to be sensible and do the right thing! The right thing is always about having regard for others – even if you don’t like them!

Dear Parents,

"Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves. "But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

The gospel calls us into reflection on the way we are living our lives. In the homily, Fr Leo in my parish at New Farm shared something from a book that I now hope to read: 'Tuesdays with Morrie.' In this book a former student meets up with a mentor from his youth, as his mentor is dying, and they spend a day a week talking about life and lessons in how to live. The gospel this week certainly prompts us to think about lessons for living, both the ones we preach and the ones we practise. On Sunday, Father left us with the thought 'if this was your last day how would you live it' and I leave that with you as food for thought.

Last week at assembly, I showed the students a short youtube clip of Caine's Arcade, and today will show the 2nd short clip. The Imagination Foundation was born from the discovery of Caine’s Arcade and it is flourishing around the world. In October they are holding another 'Global Cardboard Challenge' but as this is during our holiday we are going to have a challenge at school this term with a culminating day on the last day of term. I commend to you the viewing of:

CONGRATULATIONS
NEWS FROM YEAR 7 LEADERS

In Year 5/6 the students are making dynamic dominoes, and when they finish they play them! Dynamic dominoes is a game where you have algorithms on one card and someone has to find the answers on the other dominoes. In History in Year 6 they are learning about Inland Explorers, and in Science the learning is about solar power and energy. In Year 5 they are reading a novel called ‘A New gold mine in China.’ It is about positive and negative events and images.

As the Year 7’s say “this is always a great year “. In Religion the students of Year 7 need to create a poster, brochure, art piece, model, PowerPoint or a comic about what rules out of the Ten Commandments they would truly live by. In Maths Yr 7 went to the Pine Rivers Show and had a great time conducting statistical research and determining probability. We are also learning about physical sciences, this includes Newton’s first law of motion inertia (in-er-sha). At the end of the term Mrs Grover wants students to create their own experiment and we will showcase it to the rest of the school as our own little Questacon. In English Year 7 are being educated about information reports, one of their assessments is on cyber-bullying, the students have been watching videos that are quite full-on but have very interesting information. In Health the students are learning about body systems, each individual has to create their own PowerPoint on one of the many body systems. In History Year 7 is learning about Ancient Greece, to top off the term they’re creating a mini Olympics! We can’t wait to figure out what Year 7 is doing in Term 4.

By Justine Robinson

Term 3, Year 3 classes have been learning amazing things! In the English Curriculum, they have been studying about how to draft and write specific genres of writing. They are focusing on report writing. In Mathematics, they have been exploring angles, multiplication and division, and the world of shapes. In Science, they have been learning about biological sciences. Year 3 are studying plants and animals and their appearance. Other learning is about special features, grouping, how specific animals move and much more! In Religion they are studying the Old Testament in the bible and reading and exploring different stories. In History, they’re learning all about Australia. Their enthusiasm and dedication to their learning is very inspiring. I cannot wait to explore what they will be learning in Term 4!

Lizelle Eugenio

In year 4 they have been doing a range of exciting things, going to the pine rivers show, learning about plays and learning about money. This term they have mainly been doing money investigations, chance and probability and handwriting. Be sure to see some nice neat cursive handwriting soon! The Pine Rivers Show trip was about a money investigation and about budgeting. They had a play on Friday of week 5, it was a beautiful play.

ENRICHMENT CENTRE

Recently included in my Parish newsletter was a piece entitled, “The paradox of our time.” The piece has been attributed to a number of people but the original author was a Dr Bob Moorehead. While the piece is fairly lengthy and worth reading, here is a brief excerpt. It challenges us to be better.

“The paradox of our time in history is that we have taller buildings but shorter tempers, wider Freeways, but narrower viewpoints. We spend more, but have less, we buy more, but enjoy less. We have bigger houses and smaller families, more conveniences, but less time. We have more degrees but less sense, more knowledge, but less judgment, more experts, yet more problems, more medicine, but less wellness. We drink too much, smoke too much, spend too recklessly, laugh too little, drive too fast, get too angry, stay up too late, get up too tired, read too little, watch TV too much, and pray too seldom. We have multiplied our possessions, but reduced our values. We talk too much, love too seldom, and hate too often. We’ve learned how to make a living, but not a life. We’ve added years to life not life to years. We’ve been all the way to the moon and back, but have trouble crossing the street to meet a new neighbor. We conquered outer space but not inner space. We’ve done larger things, but not better things. We’ve cleaned up the air, but polluted the soul. We’ve conquered the atom, but not our prejudice. We write more, but learn less. We plan more, but accomplish less. We’ve learned to rush, but not to wait. We build more computers to hold more information, to produce more copies than ever, but we communicate less and less.”

Have a great week
